ARMOR UP FOR GOD

WELCOME BACK TO SUNDAY SCHOOL – SEPTEMBER 13

As we near the start of a new school year, we also welcome back our Sunday School students on September 13 at 10:00 am. This year's theme, "Armor Up for God" is perfect for the kids as they learn to stand against uncertainty of what this school year will bring. They will engage in new curriculum that will remind them of how God's people faced uncertainty and how with the love of Jesus they can get through anything. Can't wait to see everyone back to start a new year together!

PARENTS: On the first day, please be sure to let your child's teacher know t-shirt sizes for your child, so we can order t-shirts right away. Additionally, if you haven't done so, we will need you to sign the photo waiver that will allow us to use photographs throughout the year on our Facebook page, website and other areas of promotion.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES BEGIN WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

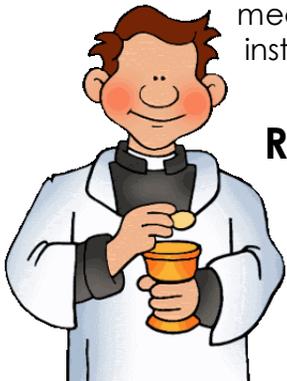

Pastor Becker and Tracie met with the incoming confirmation students on August 30 to discuss how classes will work. Both 1st and 2nd year students will be studying from Luther's Small Catechism this year. The kids will meet via ZOOM lessons. They will receive both group and individual instruction. If you were not able to attend the meeting but would still like your 7th or 8th grade child to receive confirmation instruction contact Pastor Becker at 218-927-3170 as soon as possible. Thanks.

RITE OF CONFIRMATION IS SEPTEMBER 13 AT 9:00AM

All are invited to a very special Sunday worship on September 13 to share in the Right of Confirmation for Maggie Borseth and Justin Backstrom. Following worship you are invited to stay for cake and fellowship. These two have needed to postpone this special day since April 19, due to the COVID-19 virus, so let's all come together to congratulate them!
